How to find the crag:

Drive from Nice in the direction of Sospel, turn right on to D21 in the direction of Peillon and then follow signpost for la Grave de Peille. You can also drive from la Turbie on the small road in the direction of Peille, pass this village in the direction of la Grave de Peille. From la Grave de Peille, continue on road D21 in the direction of l'Escarène. After some kilometres you will see a mine area at your left. Turn right on to a smaller road and park on a layby just after the house before a hairpin. Follow this road by foot as described on the map. The road change quality, only partly asphalted, on a open area just before this change, turn left and find a small track that leads into the wood. After about 10 minutes in the wood you reach an point with a beautiful view over the valley, leave this track for a step, smaller track to the right, 2-3 minutes up to the crag.
